

0 STATE ROAD 1712, BELHAVEN, BEAUFORT

SOLD

Sophie's Island has the best of everything, high ground along Gum Neck Rd, and miles of shoreline along the Pungo River! This property is a Sportsman's Paradise! Enjoy hunting for deer and bear and some of the best waterfowl hunting in Eastern Beaufort County. Includes 4 brushed in Duck Blinds, excellent fishing and access to a boat ramp at the head of the creek. 547 ac Waterfront Hunting Property for Sale in Beaufort County NC! Sophie's Island is truly a one of a kind hunting and fishing destination. Meandering creeks and waterways spider web through the property creating outstanding angling and hunting opportunities. The property has over 1/2 mile of road frontage on Gum Neck Rd, located right off Hwy 264 and just minutes from coastal town of Belhaven and less than an hour from Greenville and Little Washington. The Pungo River is well known as an excellent fishery loaded with pristine shorelines and waters that are rich in speckled trout. Early Native Americans identified it as "matcha punga" or the "river of many fish." The name stuck, and the river continues to maintain its rich heritage. Although relatively remote, the Pungo is a great fishing destination hidden deep in the headwaters of the Pamlico Sound.
