SOLD

19.64 Acres of Tar River Hunting Land For Sale in Edgecombe County NC! Take a look at this fantastic tract of land that's available just outside of Tarboro. Easily accessible, full of wildlife, has deeded access, a survey, and the potential for building your dream home or weekend getaway. It's also located on the Tar River. This property has tons of potential! This property has everything you want and need for an affordable hunting property! Featuring a 3.45 acre field, a couple of food plots, an internal trail system, and almost 400 feet of Tar River Frontage. There are numerous tree stands and ground blinds on the property that are ideal for hunting whitetail deer. There are also a few places where you can hunt wild turkey. There is also a low-lying area that tends to hold water that is could be set up to hunt migratory waterfowl. The property is rectangular in shape (see aerial photos) and is laid out in such a fashion that a few hunters can spread out and hunt the land safely. The neighboring tracts of land are primarily farm land and timberland tracts, making this a game-rich environment. The Tar River is known for not only its variety in fish species, including Striped Bass and American and Hockory Shad, but also the river bottom land provides ample cover and browse for a number of wild game species such as black bear, white-tail deer, and wild turkeys. The dense vegetation provides cover for deer and black bear and the tall trees that border the river attract wild turkeys for roosting trees.
