

9169 SPIVEY COURT, LELAND, BRUNSWICK

SOLD

How would you like to have a pristine 10 acres of land to yourself where you can build your dream home in this private and well kept community with a community boat launch. Septic and well permit on file and county water is available as well! . Please reach out today for a private tour! This is the only available lot so act fast as there will be no more added to this new subdivision. They call this community "Tar Pit Landing" because many years ago the sap from the near extinct Long Leaf Pine Trees was used to make materials for the wooden ships that were once launched from this community's ramp that will put you into Hood's Creek and lead you to the Cape Fear River! How cool is that?!? — Please call listing agent for directions, Spivey Court will not show on your GPS.
