

204 ROSEDALE AVE, COVINGTON, ALLEGHANY

SOLD

Situated at the base of Luke Mountain and overlooking greenspace along the Jackson River, this well-maintained Queen Anne-style home in the historic Rosedale neighborhood near Covington offers an ideal combination of fine architectural features, comfortable spaces, and a flexible plan! A fine oak/beveled glass door ushers you in to the entry hall, from which you access the large living room with a cozy fireplace. French doors open to the adjacent dining room. Previously configured as a 2-family dwelling (2 bedrooms, kitchen, living-dining areas, and complete bathroom on each floor), the home also has a full basement (laundry, workshop, mechanicals) and walkup attic. With a low maintenance exterior, quality replacement windows, recent roof, detached garage, and gorgeous yard—make it yours!
