Located on River Road near Tarheel in Bladen County, North Carolina, this 32-acre river front property offers a wide range of possibilities from recreational hunting tract to a great investment opportunity. The tract has many great features for hunting wild turkey and whitetail deer, such as food plots and tree stands already in place. The river has many species of fish such as large mouth bass, catfish, and many other types of sunfish, making it a great river for fishing. It's just a short drive from Fayetteville, which allows for an easy commute for an investment or recreational tract.
