

SOLD!! 50 ACRES OF FARM LAND FOR SALE IN COLUMBUS COUNTY NC!

SOLD

This cleared tract offers plenty of possibilities from a dream home in the country to the potential for building a duck impoundment, or having a barn with pasture land for your livestock of choice!

Located on Antioch Church Road just outside of Whiteville in Columbus County, North Carolina, is 50 acres of cleared land with 382 feet of road frontage. The property is well drained with a nice roll to it. It would make a great place to build a house and have a beautiful outdoor view. There is also plenty of room to build a horse barn, and with 50 acres of cleared land, it would be a perfect place to keep horses or any livestock of your choice. The back 8 acres borders Beaverdam Swamp that holds many species of waterfowl. Because of this, it would be an easy area to convert to a duck impoundment. There is also wild turkey that use the cleared area. If you are looking for some acreage in the country with well-drained soil and rolling hills, give this property a look!
