

HOUSE FOR SALE IN HYDE COUNTY NC!

ACTIVE

3 Bed/2 Bath renovated farmhouse for sale on almost half an acre in Engelhard North Carolina. Two out buildings, a covered boat/tractor shelter, screened front porch, large rear deck, fenced yard and private driveway with gate. Great coastal residence or hunting camp under an hour from the Outer Banks!

Renovated three bedroom/two bathroom farmhouse for sale near the town of Engelhard on mainland Hyde County North Carolina. Looking for a slower, simpler way of life? This northeastern North Carolina county is over 600 square miles with barely 5,000 residents. It has been referred to as the land of many waters. Rightly so, considering it is basically surrounded by the Pamlico Sound, the Alligator River and the Pungo River. Not to mention "the ditch" which is a reference to the Intracoastal Waterway and the famed Lake Mattamuskeet which is the state's largest natural lake. Engelhard is the easternmost town on the mainland. It's less than 50 miles down Hwy 264 from the Outer Banks. The house sits down a private driveway off Lazy Lane and is just on the edge of town. There are four structures on the property which includes the two-story home, a lockable storage building for fishing gear on one side of the home, a workshop for rigging decoys and a covered carport / boat / tractor shelter behind the home. The home itself is over 1350 square feet with a screen front porch and a large open back deck. It is plenty suitable for a permanent residence, a hunting / fishing camp or a rental property. Downstairs, there's an updated kitchen and den as well as the master bedroom with adjacent full bath and an additional combo full bath and utility room. There is ample cabinet and counter space in the kitchen as well as a dishwasher, a gas stove and a large refrigerator. The original staircase and banister railing lead upstairs to two large bedrooms which are perfect for bunk rooms if used as a hunting camp.

For the outdoor / adventure lover you will never run out of places to explore. Between state-owned game lands and national wildlife refuges there are over 135,000 acres of public lands to frolic on. For the fisherman, Hyde County is one of the top inshore saltwater fishing destinations in the state and it has plenty of freshwater opportunities as well. Why not let this home be your base camp that provides access to a world of outdoor opportunities. Did I mention it is quiet here? There's not a stoplight in the entire county. Shown by appointment only.
