SOLD

552 Feet of River Frontage - 1600 Feet of Road Frontage - Hunting, Fishing and Recreational Paradise!

Looking for the ultimate outdoor getaway? This is it, in beautiful Pulaski County Virginia. This property is located on Big Reed Island Creek, at an approximately 150 foot wide river. This property has 47.72 acres of land to hunt, hike and trail ride. There are plenty of signs of wildlife on this property from deer to bear and turkey. Electricity is also readily available for this property if you would like to build that weekend/vacation getaway cabin. This is a property the family and friends can go to camp and have plenty of recreational time together. Whatever your outdoor obsession is, this property has the elements to help you pursue it! There is 552 feet of river frontage for accessing the river for canoeing, kayaking, tubing, fishing or just plain old relaxing. Parking should be no problem as there is an old drive into this property right off the main road and there is 1600 feet of road frontage along the property. There are 2 creeks that run through the property that feed into the river.

If more canoeing and fishing is what you like you are only minutes away from the second oldest river in the world, The New River. Explore the New River Trail, if hiking or biking is your passion. You are just a short drive to Claytor Lake if you enjoy lake fishing. If you enjoy golfing there are three golf courses in Pulaski County. The three courses are Draper Valley Golf Club, Pete Dye River Course, and Thornspring Golf and Event Center.

If you have been looking for a riverfront property with endless outdoor recreation opportunities located on one of the most beautiful rivers in the Virginia, you just found it! This property is the ultimate recreational property for a family and friends to enjoy for years to come.
