Twenty-nine acres of all wooded land located in the Nutbush area of Lunenburg County. The parcel has road frontage on Double Bridges Rd. This was a working farm at one time but has grown up in pines. There are various strips of hardwoods creating great feeding areas for the wildlife and the thick pines create great browsing and bedding areas. Little Ledbetter Creek runs the rear line making a great water source for the wildlife. If you're looking for that recreational or hunting parcel don't let this slip by.
