

5163 RIDGEVIEW RD, REVA, MADISON

ACTIVE

This alluring 128 acre farm is among the largest in Madison County. The sturdy Four Square house built in the year 1900 is >3000 sq ft. It sits on the end of the ridge, nearly 1/2 mile from the road, and needs renovation. The private driveway leads to some of the best panoramic views of the mountains in the county, including Old Rag and the Blue Ridge. It features a large, spring fed pond with wildlife teaming everywhere, for swimming, fishing, hiking and photography. Cattle graze under a sky full of hawks, eagles, kingfishers, geese and song birds. . Red Fox, wild turkey, deer, and beaver are at home here. There are wild persimmon trees and mature nut trees. The Wildlife Refuge Area is close as is Old Rag, Skyline Drive and small towns bursting with specialty restaurants, art museums and inns. Dulles Airport is under an hour and a half. Tyson's Corner and the DC Metro at 2hrs. UVA Hospital and University are 1hr. There are 3 spring fed water troughs for your cattle, horses, and donkeys, with fields for crops and forests for firewood. No matter what your hobby, be it hiking, fishing, gardening, or photography, or just taking in the Mountain View's this property has something to offer you and your kin.
