207 +/- acres located on Highway 20 near Saint Pauls in Bladen County, North Carolina. A tract with many different opportunities. This tract offers about 100 acres of woodlands and about 100 acres of cleared land. This property could be used for development, recreation, investment, or to build your dream home in the country with plenty of additional land as your backyard. Trails throughout the property would provide great hiking, ATV, or horseback riding. With land already cleared, food plots could easily be planted to set up for hunting whitetail deer, turkey, or other small game. The cleared areas could also be used to build a home or plant the fields for farming. The timber could also provide some future income. The tract is less than 10 minutes outside of Saint Pauls, less than 30 minutes from Lumberton, and only about 20 minutes from Fayetteville.
