Great recreational tract with a 5 acre pond in the Big Buck country of historic Surry County! Beautiful pond with a healthy stock of most local freshwater fish including Big Bass! Boat house on the shore for convenience. Almost 60 acres of timber with 50 acres of 15-year-old planted pines. About 10 acres with tall mixed timber meandering throughout lower areas. Bailey Branch runs most of the western border and another creek to the north feeds into Gray Pond. Established gravel path runs about 3,000' off the paved road to take you to the pond. If you want to get off the beaten path, this is it! Some trails already in place and waiting for you to make your mark. Great tract for a cabin getaway or a custom home with a couple of great locations overlooking the pond. Even with a seasonal camping trailer you can spend your time hunting, shooting, camping, or 4 wheeling. About 30 minutes from the Richmond and Williamsburg areas and about 1 hour from Hampton Roads. Good investment with growing pines.-

In 1652, Surry County was formed from the portion of James City County south of the James River. For more than 350 years, Surry County has depended on an agricultural economy. It has guarded its heritage, including many small towns and 19 sites listed on the National Register including a landmark occupied in 1676 known as Bacon's Castle and Chippokes Plantation (now a state park). The Jamestown Ferry provides easy access to Virginia's Historic Triangle, featuring Jamestown, Williamsburg, and Yorktown, linked by the National Park Service's Colonial Parkway.

The county is known for farming, curing Virginia Hams, and harvesting lumber, notably Virginia Pine.
