

200 WOOD ACRES RD, CLIFTON FORGE, ALLEGHANY

SOLD

Skyward Retreat has it all; a large lodge style residence designed with multi-level decks overlooking a waterfall on a mountain trout stream bordering the George Washington National Forest. This property has a diverse range of elevations with a well-established interior road and trail system. There is an additional cabin (in need of complete renovation) near the back at the bend of Smith Creek with a dramatic view of a magnificent rock ledge. There is an additional structure called The Saloon located at the summit of the property. Once you cross a private bridge to the iron gates ,you are entering a 56-acre private domain. The lodge is great for entertaining with friends and family. Enjoy the creek and the stars in the evenings from any of the many decks. Several additional building sites.
