Tremendous opportunity to own farm land and timber land 8 miles from Elizabethtown, NC.- This property has tons of opportunity for a family looking for a homestead or investment land. The land has around 32 acres of agricultural land with approximately 35+/- acres of mature pines that was thinned in 2016.- Another 30+/- acres of natural growth pines and hardwoods that has signs of being a wildlife haven. There is a wide ATV path through the pines that is great for a future food plot as well as the utility easement in the back of the property.-
