Mossy Oak Properties is excited to offer for sale 64.08 acres in Mecklenburg County, located in central southern Virginia. If you are looking for a great recreational property this is it. This listing has 203 feet of road frontage, with approximately two acres of an open, landscaped area at the front and is otherwise fully wooded, widening substantially as you progress towards the back. In 2005, approximately 31 acres were clearcut and has returned with natural re-growth leaving the balance of the land a mixture of mature hardwood and pine. This property has great multi-use potential as the ideal location for building a spacious home with a great yard, plenty of wooded land for hunting various types of game, and lots of space for numerous outdoor activities such as camping, ATV, or horseback riding. Everything you could want from a quaint southern space can be found with this property!

Additionally, this property is in an amazing location, as it is less than 10 minutes from Chase City, and 25 minutes from South Hill. Each of these cities has multiple options for shopping, restaurants, bars, and various opportunities for community involvement. Also, Interstate 85 runs through South Hill, allowing quick access to a major corridor to North Carolina or Northern Virginia if you tend to travel frequently. Less than 5 minutes away from the property is Mecklenburg Country Club, offering a high-quality golf experience, as well as other amenities the Country Club has to offer. If you enjoy boating or being on the water fishing, this property is ideal for you! Rudd's Creek Marina at John H. Kerr Reservoir is only 20 minutes away, and you could be at Lake Gaston in about 45 minutes. Both lakes are well known for their scenic views, high quality fishing, and community atmosphere, and you could go as frequently as you'd like living in such a close proximity. There are many reasons to love this area of Mecklenburg County, and owning property here can give you access to everything you have been looking for and more!
