29 Acres of Farmland and Residential Land with Ponds For Sale in Robeson County, NC! This property features 20 acres of farmland, several smaller ponds, and some wooded acreage. It's accessible via Old Bailey Road and is located just outside of Fairmont. The property would be ideal for a homesite. Your dream house could be built off the beaten path and overlooking prime farmland and a pond. The 20 acres of farmland is income producing and has been used for row crop agriculture. None of the property is encompassed in the FEMA Floodplain. The soils consist of Coxville loam (Co), Duplin sandy loam (DpA), Norfolk loamy sand (NoA), and Wagram loamy sand (WaB).

The ponds are older irrigation ponds and hold some fish. They seem to be of a reasonable depth, appear healthy and have no algae issues. These smaller ponds would be a great place to take a kid fishing and catch a few fish. -Showings are for serious inquiries only.
