This beautiful 4.09 acre residential and recreational lot is perfect for a family, small or large. Being the area closest to the road is out of all wetlands and has a suitable perk site for a 4 bedroom dwelling, lot 140 is build ready for a family home! The remaining acreage on the property is the perfect area to keep the family outdoors and adventuring around the neighborhood or through the woods. There is a beautiful seasonal creek that runs through the center of the property that would be a gorgeous attribute once the area that would be the backyard of the home is thinned. The trees are a mixture of hardwood and pine making a beautiful background when thinned around a homesite. This lot also has a clear view of the near pond, where I have seen residents fishing.

This parcel is one of the largest remaining parcels of land to build on in the gated community of Pamlico Plantation. The acreage closest to Mockernut lane is the perfect location for your dream home and outbuilding to fit all the families needs. Whether in the winter cutting through the crisp air or in the summer making a leisure stroll, this neighborhood is the perfect place to be close to neighbors and keep the friendly family atmosphere alive in Pamlico Plantation!
