Don't miss out on this rare opportunity to purchase a classic country Cape Cod style home located in the highly sought-after Darden Mill Estates in Southampton County Virginia. The circular asphalt driveway and well-maintained landscaping lead you to a picturesque 4 bedroom, 2.5 bathroom home with high ceilings, hardwood floors and a light, airy kitchen with a center island. A full dining room and spacious living area provide ample room for daily living, and the additional bonus flex spaces can be utilized for anything, from a private home office to a home theater or recreational area. The Master Bathroom features Italian marble floors with heating and cooling panels, a double shower with custom glass doors, and a large built-in linen closet. The well-maintained backyard boasts a large wooden deck that's perfect for entertaining friends and family on warm summer days or just enjoying beautiful sunsets. -----

Southampton County, is bordered by the Blackwater River on the east and the Meherrin River on the west. The Nottoway River flows through the center of the county. All three rivers are tributaries of the Chowan River, which flows south into the Albemarle Sound in North Carolina. The Blackwater River separates Southampton County from Isle of Wight County, and the Meherrin River separates it from Greenville County. -
