Located just outside the town of Scranton, this unrestricted property is ready for a home, horses, or a small hobby farm. The majority of the land is currently cleared and being farmed. Pines and hardwoods border the property on three sides offering privacy for your homesite. The woods at the end of the field are home to the plentiful deer that graze on the farm. The wooded area encompasses some wetlands but over 6.5 acres of the property do not have any wetlands and provide the perfect location to build.

This would be a great property for vacationers as well as those who are looking for a place to keep their RVs and boats. It's close proximity to Scranton Creek, the Pungo River, Rose Bay, and the Pamlico Sound make it a great location for waterfowlers looking for a base camp. Fishing and hunting in the area is excellent!

The historic towns of Belhaven, Bath and Washington are close by and offer many opportunities to shop and enjoy local seafood. The Outer Banks and Greenville are both within 90 minutes, offering many opportunities for shopping, eating, and leisure activities.

Parcels like these don't tend to stay on the market very long!
