If you've dreamed of the ultimate lodge or home in the woods then this may be the one you've been waiting for! Seclusion, privacy and serenity on 34 acres. Located in Tyrrell County, the area is home to big bears in big numbers. Deer and turkey are also plentiful here. The property is loaded with beautiful hardwoods that are open and easy to navigate and you'll enjoy walking the many trails. As you move through the forest you'll feel like you're in an untouched part of Eastern, North Carolina. Fruit trees are planted throughout the property and many species of birds and small game abound. Whether you're a hunter, or just someone who enjoys seeing wildlife, you'll find yourself at home here.

The two-story 3 bedroom home is a quiet oasis that is well off the beaten path. The interior is primarily finished in Malaysian Teak and with a rustic wood-burning stove it would make the perfect sportsman's lodge or family getaway. Why not make this your home base while hunting the property and enjoying the excellent bear and waterfowl hunting as well as the excellent fishing that the immediate and surrounding areas have to offer?

Two large outbuildings, as well as some smaller sheds, are on the property. It's the perfect place to store your gear, use as a workshop or for your crafts and hobbies. There's also room to add cabins for friends, family or clients. Did we mention that the property comes with a 4x4 Kawasaki Mule and generator as well?

This home sits on the outskirts of Columbia. The Outer Banks and their beautiful beaches are less than an hour away. There are several national wildlife refuges and parks nearby and they're a great place to hike, bike and enjoy all that Eastern NC has to offer.

Home is being sold as is.-
