

107 HALL ROAD, NEW BERN, CRAVEN

PENDING

Breathtaking views of the "River of Peace," the Neuse River, are yours to own with this rare acquisition. For use as a private estate overlooking an expansive river front. Private yet convenient, close to the heart of historic downtown New Bern. Availability of riverfront property being in very short supply, the large acreage this offering affords, the beautiful waterfront view, and being very near Historic Downtown New Bern, all contribute to the rarity of this opportunity. These parcels are not in a designated flood zone nor has the property been previously flooded (known within the current owner's lifetime having grown up on the property). This is a remarkable opportunity to develop an exquisite, private, waterfront property and actually own one of the most beautiful sunrises on the Neuse River."
