

0 UPPER BACK CREEK RD, MONTEREY, HIGHLAND

ACTIVE

This secluded 27-acre recreational parcel has a good road system throughout the property. There is also a new driveway and cleared cabin site for development with views across and down the valley. An ideal small hunting tract with good deer, turkey, grouse, and bear populations. The property has good road frontage on a quiet, county-maintained gravel road. Large adjacent tracts and vast national forest blocks surround the area creating solitude and the chance for a big Allegheny mountain buck or gobbler. This property has close proximity to Laurel Fork, the George Washington National Forest, and is 15 minutes to the town of Monterey.
