

TBD UPPER BACK CREEK RD, MONTEREY, HIGHLAND

ACTIVE

Seize the opportunity to own your dream parcel, offering breathtaking mountain views and prime hunting access. This picturesque property includes open pasture for potential homesteading, road frontage, and a stunning hardwood forest that is overflowing with white oaks that will provide for not only an excellent food source for whitetail deer during bumper acorn years, but will also be great future timber investment if needed. Only one private property separates you from thousands of acres of National Forest. Enjoy the convenience of an interior trail and road network leading to future strategically placed deer stands, complemented by a babbling creek weaving through the landscape. Be only a 20 minute drive from the quaint town of Monterey with restaurants and groceries, yet feel like you've stepped back in time to a simpler and slower pace of life in Virginia's least populated county.
