

8628 BALD EAGLE LANE, WILMINGTON, NEW HANOVER

PENDING

Go to any affluent area in the nation, and there will be that one iconic street, an address whose name means something to knowledgeable locals. Bald Eagle Lane is that kind of place. It is not on an island, but it overlooks one. It isn't on a golf course, but it's close to two of the nicest Wilmington has to offer. It's waterfront, but with enough high ground to build your home out of the flood zone. It is convenient to everything you need, but quiet enough to feel secluded. Within minutes of your dock, you could be surfing on Figure Eight Island, collecting shells on Hutaff, or enjoying a shrimp burger and a cold beer at Wrightsville Beach. The old homes on this street are disappearing like sandcastles on an incoming tide. What they are being replaced with are graceful new mansions, magnificent collaborations between builders, architects, and their clients. This is one of those opportunities. Located on a high wooded parcel overlooking the Intracoastal Waterway, this property will easily accommodate a large home, garage, storage building, swimming pool, docking facilities, and more. Start drawing up your dream home, call your architect and builder, and if you don't already own a boat, you might want to purchase one. Existing house conveys as is with the property at closing.
