

633 BARBADOS, CHARLESTON, BERKELEY

ACTIVE

Discover unparalleled luxury living in this exquisite Tuscan Mediterranean-inspired home nestled within the prestigious gated community of Beresford Hall. Crafted in 2008 by a renowned luxury builder for his personal use, this residence epitomizes sophistication and elegance. Upon entering through the grand 18-foot Mahogany double doors, you're greeted by a double-height foyer that leads seamlessly into the expansive great room boasting soaring ceilings, custom woodworking, and a dual-sided gas fireplace shared with the kitchen. The gourmet kitchen features top-of-the-line appliances, a spacious mahogany island, and a cozy informal dining area. Entertain effortlessly with a wet bar area adjacent to the kitchen, opening into the dining space. Enjoy serene views of the lush landscaping and deepwater dock from the bright and airy living areas. The master wing offers a luxurious retreat with a grand bedroom, spa-like bath, dressing room, executive office, and workout room to include a full bathroom with a sauna. Additional guest suites and a bonus room reside upstairs, while a private waterfront guest suite awaits on the lower level. Outside, indulge in a private oasis overlooking Nowell Creek, featuring an elevated pool, bluestone patio with fireplace, and a deepwater dock with a covered boat lift. Beresford Hall provides an unparalleled lifestyle with world-class amenities, including a clubhouse, community pool, dock facilities, parks, and playgrounds. Don't miss the opportunity to experience the epitome of Lowcountry living - schedule your showing today and make this magnificent estate your new home.

MORE DETAILS

Address:

633 Barbados
Charleston, SC 29492

Acreage: 1.0 acres

County: Berkeley

GPS Location:

32.900015 x -79.908971

PRICE: $6,895,000