Located just outside of Scotland Neck in the heart of Halifax County, NC, this beautiful rural property offers a unique opportunity for hunters, outdoor enthusiasts, or those seeking a peaceful retreat. Known for some of the best deer and turkey hunting in the state, this area boasts a rich natural habitat and a quiet countryside setting.

This versatile property is ideal for hunting, recreation, or as a potential home site. It features a healthy stand of natural pine timber that has not been thinned, providing excellent cover and habitat for deer, quail, and rabbits. A small creek runs along the boundary, offering a reliable water source for wildlife and enhancing the property's appeal for outdoor use.

A sturdy on-site shelter is already in place—perfect for use as a hunting base camp, gear storage, or a weekend getaway. Whether you're looking to build, camp, or just escape to nature, this spot offers flexibility and potential.

Conveniently located just 30 minutes from Rocky Mount and a little over an hour from Raleigh, this property offers easy access via direct road frontage—making equipment transport or spontaneous trips out to the land simple and stress-free.

With a bit of vision and effort, this property can be transformed into an exceptional spot for hunting, shooting, ATV riding, or simply enjoying the outdoors. Don't miss your chance to own an affordable and versatile piece of land in a highly desirable rural setting.
